HDFC BANK

NEW TO FCNR? LET US HELP

An FCNR Deposit is a Fixed Deposit held in a permitted foreign currency, so your money stays in foreign currency, fully shielded from rupee exchange-rate movements.

It's available to Non-Resident Indians (NRIs) and Persons of Indian Origin (PIOs, including OCI card holders) living abroad. In short: guaranteed tax-free returns, paid in foreign currency, with both principal and interest free to move back to you abroad.

A LIMITED-TIME ADVANTAGE - FCNR SWAP WINDOW

FCNR Swap Deposit is a facility that allows banks to swap FCNR Deposits with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) to reduce foreign currency funding costs and manage liquidity.

During this window period, bank allows NRI/PIO customers to book FCNR Deposit at higher than normal interest rate.

Regular FCNR (B) Deposit

Tenure
1 to 5 years

Lock-in
None

FCNR (B) During the Swap Window

Tenure
3 to 5 years

Lock-in
1 year

Everything else stays exactly the same. If you've been thinking about an FCNR (B) deposit, this is the moment to act - while the window is open till 30th September, 2026.

Important points to remember -

- 1) Deposit booked during swap window cannot be liquidated within 1 year due to lock in.
- 2) Premature withdrawal of existing deposit to rebook FCNR under swap window is not allowed.
- 3) FCNR (B) deposit cannot be booked in offshore locations of HDFC Bank including GIFT City.

READY TO GET STARTED? HERE'S HOW

Booking is quick, and we've made sure there's a way that suits you wherever you are. Choose whichever is easiest:

1. Transfer money from abroad (SWIFT remittance)

Just ask your overseas bank to include the following in the SWIFT message, and I'll take it from there:

Field	What to enter
Beneficiary Name	Your name, as per your HDFC Bank Account
Beneficiary Account Number	Your HDFC Bank Customer ID _____
Beneficiary Bank	HDFC Bank
SWIFT Code	HDFCINBB
Correspondent Bank Details	Click here >
Additional Information (mandatory)	Book FCNR deposit for a tenor of ____ months ____ Customer ID: _____

2. During a visit to India

In town? Drop in and deposit foreign-currency cheques, drafts, or cash in person. If you're depositing more than USD 5,000 equivalent foreign-currency cash, just carry your Customs Declaration Form (CDF), it's required.

3. From your NRE account

Already banking with us? Book your FCNR deposit online by debiting your existing NRE account through Netbanking. Click here >

Whichever route you pick, I am ready to help at every step.

WHY NRIS CHOOSE FCNR

Fully repatriable - Both principal and interest move freely back to you, abroad, whenever you want.

Tax-free in India - Interest earned is completely exempt from tax in india.

Zero currency exchange risk - Your funds stay in foreign currency from the first day to the last.
